

OUR HISTORY:

The Rev. Dr. Charles Humphrey Este immigrated to Montreal from Antigua in 1913. He ministered at Union United Church from 1925 to 1968 and co-founded The Negro Community Center (NCC). Rev. Este advocated the empowerment and values of education and was pivotal in enabling many West Indian students to further their studies at Sir George Williams College which is now Concordia University.

In memory of the dedicated minister and civil rights advocate, proceeds from Union United Church's 65th Anniversary celebrations were used to create The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Este Fund. To date, hundreds of students have benefitted from this perpetual fund.
