“NELSON MANDELA DAY CELEBRATION”

At
Union United Church

(Montreal, February 7, 2016) The Union United Church and the Comité d’initiative citoyenne celebrate the very first “Nelson Mandela Day” in Quebec, as a tribute to our national hero. On June 11, 2015, the Quebec National Assembly adopted Law 493 declaring February 11, the day where Nelson Mandela was released from prison in 1990, “Nelson Mandela Day”. His historic visit to Montreal that year included a visit to the Union United Church, the oldest Black congregation in Quebec.

The celebration will take place on;

Sunday, February 14, 2016

2:00pm - 4:00pm

UNION UNITED CHURCH
3007 Delisle st.
Montreal, QC.

A reception will follow.
